Ocean Week News

By Daisy P, 4th grade

Daisy Pesak here with great news! Ocean Week is coming! You might ask, "What is Ocean Week?" Well that is why I am here to tell you! From April 20th to the 25th, you will go to a different classroom and do a wild activity.

You might say, why does Edison school do this? Well I have interviewed Carrie Ann and Karen, two of the four 4-5 teacher at Edison.

Daisy: Why do you think Edison school does Ocean Week?

Carrie Ann: Well, don't we all need Ocean Week? (laugh)

Daisy: What was your first Ocean Week like?

Carrie Ann: Awesome, really tired at the end but awesome.

Daisy: Before I go, what activity do you do?

Carrie Ann: Well, I love the jellies.

That's all for Carrie Ann. Now on to Karen!

Daisy: Why do you think Edison does Ocean Week?

Karen: The ocean is one of the most fun places on Earth. We need to take more care of it. Our planet needs the ocean. When my students grow up, I hope they will take care of the ocean.

Daisy: What was your first Ocean Week like?

Karen: Very exciting. So much fun stuff!

Daisy: Before I go, what activity do you do?

Karen: Well, this year, forth and fifth grade are going to do Open Ocean, dissect squid, and make paper maché jelly fish.

That's all for today, I'm Daisy Pesak saying, have a good day. (Images from www.sargbay.ca/)

VOTE!!!

Editorial, comic and survey by Caden M, 4th Grade

The political campaign is coming and people are going crazy. Here's some information about it so you don't go crazy. First of all, look at the poll results on the chart. Then, read this. Republicans just want war, so I wouldn't choose them. And to me, Clinton doesn't do enough for the people. Now, chose for yourself and vote!!!

This chart shows who students in the publishing program think should be president.

Jog-a-thon Fun

by Daisy P., 4th grade

Did you hear? The Jog-a-thon is almost here! On May 9 2008, the whole school will go to the South Eugene High School track field and run for one hour. It might sound boring, but the fun is here!

You ask your parents, grandparents, or even friends to sign a form to raise money to help Edison School be a better school! But the good part is if you return the piece of paper with three pledges, you get a Prince Puckler's ice cream coupon for a free ice cream! But that's not all! During the race after each lap, have your teacher or a parent mark the lap on the paper on your back.

At the end, you get popsicles and get to run around. But the sad part is that you have to go back to school. But the good part is you missed a lot of school work because it's an early release day!

The Shelton McMurphey-Johnson House was built in 1888, and it sits on a hill overlooking Eugene (at Skinner Butte). The Sheltons were the first people to live in the house. They had someone build it for them by the railroad, because back then, everyone wanted to live by the railroad.

The Shelton McMurphey-Johnson House is now a Victorian museum, where you can visit. You should check it out. It's worth it!

Faroria

by Ruby S-T, 5th grade

Waking with a start, Faroria sat up. Huddled in her covers she shivered, even though she was sweating. Looking around, she heard a rumble. Her legs shaking, Faroria got on her jacket. Feeling for the door, in the gloom, she found the doorknob and opened it. Stepping outside her eyes opened wide. In front of her cottage was a gleaming orb. Its pearly white shell seemed to swirl and pulse. Walking forward, she was bathed in a luminous, satiny glow. Faroria, leaning forward, slowly started to pick the orb up. As she touched it, a warmth spread up through her fingers and into her arms. Her whole body seemed almost weightless. But then for some reason she let go.

Faroria looked around. What had happened to her surroundings? Instead of her cottage, there were steep, sloping obsidian walls. Faroria looked down to find that in the orb's place there was a..... what?!! In its place there was a gleaming, scaly, curled baby lizard. No, a dragon. Stretching, it got up, flashing its huge, beautiful eyes. Faroria stood there, her mouth hanging wide open. Suddenly seeing the dragon shiver she slowly and carefully reached out to touch it. The dragon leaned forward, sniffing her hand. It stayed in its place for a moment, then turning around one time it and crossed over to Faroria letting out a happy squeak.

The Art Center

by John W., 4th grade

I decided to pick my favorite art projects from Edison school and put them in the art center. I chose these art projects because I want to share this great art with people who don't have access to it. Enjoy!

Sweet Recipes

Hotcross buns

RECIPE BY www.fabulousfoods.com

Ingredients: 1 C milk • 2 T yeast • 1/2 C sugar • 2 tsp. salt • 1/3 C butter, melted • and cooled • 1 tsp. cinnamon • 1/2 tsp. nutmeg • 4 eggs • C flour • 1 1/3 C currants or raisins • 1 egg white

Glaze: 1 1/3 C confectioners sugar • 1 1/2 tsp. finely chopped • lemon zest • 1/2 tsp lemon extract • 1-2 T milk

In a small saucepan, heat milk to very warm, but not hot (110°F if using a candy thermometer). Fit an electric mixer with a dough hook. Pour warm milk in the bowl of mixer and sprinkle yeast over. Mix to dissolve and let sit for 5 minutes.

With mixer running at low speed, add sugar, salt, butter, cinnamon, nutmeg and eggs.

Gradually add flour, dough will be wet and sticky, and continue with dough hook until smooth, about 5 minutes. Detach bowl, cover with plastic wrap and let the dough "rest" for 30-45 minutes.

Return bowl to mixer and knead until smooth and elastic, for about 3 more minutes. Add currants or raisins and knead until well mixed. At this point, dough will still be fairly wet and sticky. Shape dough in a ball, place in a buttered dish, cover with plastic wrap and let rise overnight in the refrigerator. Excess moisture will be absorbed by the morning.

Let dough sit at room temperature for about a half-hour. Line a large baking pan with parchment paper. Divide dough into 24 equal pieces. Shape each portion into a ball and place on baking sheet, about 1/2 inch apart. Cover with a clean kitchen towel and let rise in a warm, draft-free place until doubled in size, about 1 1/2 hours.

In the meantime, pre-heat oven to 400° F. When buns have risen, take a sharp or serrated knife and carefully slash buns with a cross. Brush them with egg white and place in oven. Bake for 10 minutes, then reduce heat to 350° F, then bake until golden brown, about 15 minutes more. Transfer to a wire rack. Whisk together glaze ingredients, and spoon over buns in a cross pattern. Serve warm, if possible (Hot Cross Buns).

Why I like Hot Cross Buns

I am pretty positive I will like Hot Cross Buns even though I have never tried them. They sound really good from all I have heard about Hot Cross Buns. I decided to make Hot Cross Buns because they sound like a good recipe for Easter.

Rock Candy

5 skewers about 11"

2 1/2 cups

sugar

1 cup Water

*Food coloring

*Flavoring

First find a large rectangular casserole pan with edges about 2 1/2 in. tall. Then pour all the sugar into the bottom of the pan, pour in the water too, stir until sugar is completely dissolved. Then line up the skewers and place them in the sugar water. *If you want to add coloring and flavoring you can do that now. Put them somewhere other than the freezer or refrigerator to set for one week. The candy should grow onto the sticks like crystals if you did it right!

Why I like Rock Candy

I like rock candy, because It is sweet, chunky and last a long time. It is fun to make and can be made with out to much work.

Ocean Week

A Mess in the Deep Ocean

by Ho Jeong L., 4th grade

image from www.diveantarctica.com

In the deep ocean, there was a huge party. No one knew that this would not turn out great. The cleaner got tired and fell asleep, all the leftovers were thrown to the bottom of the sea, and all the fishes fell asleep, too! Next morning, the fishes woke up. No one wanted to clean the mess up, so, they left all the garbage in the ocean. Later, the garbage they didn't clean up started to flow. And then a lot of fishes started to die. Then they noticed they were not so smart.

Guess what happened...

SPECIAL OCEAN WEEK AQUARAIDERS SECTION

A NORMAL AQUARAIDERS' SATURDAY MORNING

By Sam G.

It was a Saturday morning at the Aquaraiders' base. "It's Saturday again," said the radar man, "and the giant squid should be attacking soon."

"Alright," said Tony the pilot, "I'll go get the crystal for the laser."

Five minutes later Tony drove his sub towards the cave with the laser crystal. Once inside, Tony turned his sub right, left, and right again, then said "Come out." Just then a giant tiger shark appeared. "Aw, crikey*!" he said, "That wasn't there last week!"

STAR WARS

THE BATTLE OF KESSEL

BY SAM G., GRADE 4 (CONTINUED FROM THE LAST PAPER...)

As the Rebel Fleet was exiting the Kessel System, they were intercepted by a blockade of Imperial ships. Sergeant Rieekan led the Rogue Squadron. He saw some tie fighters and gave the warning. "Rogue Leader standing by," he said. The answers from the other pilots came soon.

"Rogue 3 standing by."

"Rogue 5 standing by."

"Rogue 2 standing by."

"Rogue 7 standing by."

"Set S-foils in attack position," Rieekan said as he took an evasive maneuver to avoid a tie fighter. He locked onto it and fired. Just then, Rieekan looked to his right and saw green laser bolts. He flew to the left, and so did the tie fighter. He decided to contact Wedge Antillies. "Wedge, I need cover," said Rieekan. Wedge's response came quick.

"Right with you, Rogue Leader," Wedge said.

At the same time, Grand Moff Tarkin was having his own problems. His stardestroyer was chasing the Rebel ship, Tantive IV. The Tantive IV's blasts had damaged his ship's engines, and now it was outrunning the stardestroyer. "We could send out tie interceptors," he thought, but suddenly his thoughts were interrupted by Captain Needa.

"Sir, an unidentified ship has appeared on our-"

Boom! At that moment, Grand Moff Tarkin identified the ship. "No Rebel fighter has that much power, that's a CIS strike bomber!" he paused. "Prepare my shuttle for immediate departure."

Rieekan and his squadron saw what Obi-wan had done, and were flying their ships towards the damaged stardestroyer. "Stand by," said Rieekan, as he flew ahead of the other ships. He fired at the the Imperial star cruiser, and as he drew closer to it, he pulled up just avoiding a collision with the bridge of the stardestroyer. A second later, Rieekan saw the stardestroyer's garbage storage open, but instead of garbage, an Imperial Shuttle flew out. "Rogue 2, stop that shuttle," said Rieekan.

"Right away Rogue Lea-aaaaaaaaaaahhhhhhh!!!" was all that Rieekan got from Rogue 2.

"Leave that shuttle, they have sent out the interceptors!" Rieekan ordered as he turned to face the incoming fighters. "Where is Obi-wan when I need him?!"

thought Rieekan. As if in answer, Obi-wan's fighter appeared, and fired at the tie interceptor that was pursuing Rieekan's x-wing. Thinking fast, Rieekan flew right in front of a tie fighter making it follow him. Then he flew strait across the path of a tie interceptor, making the two Imperial fighters collide.

Looking behind his ship, Rieekan saw three tie interceptors pursuing him. Suddenly he flew right above the bridge of a stardestroyer, forcing the faster, but less maneuverable Imperial fighters into a collision with it. Without warning, a huge star destroyer appeared, it was at least eleven times the size of a regular Imperial starship.

Rieekan thought hard on how he could stop this new threat, suddenly he had an idea. First he contacted a Mon Calamari starcruiser, and said "I need two Corellian dropships now!" After that, he told his plan to Obi-wan and his squadron. With the help of two Corellian dropships that would be continuously bringing more men, they were going to board the large stardestroyer. "There's only one problem," said Rieekan, "Vader."

"I'll hold him off disguised as some Jedi knight that I taught after the rise of the Empire," said Obi-wan

"The dropships are here." Wedge Antillies announced.

"All right then," Rieekan said, "Let's move!"

As Rieekan's squadron advanced on the super stardestroyer, Obi-wan snuck into its hanger. Disguised as a Jedi Knight called Thorin Zaroht, he located Darth Vader in the engine room. As Obi-wan entered the room, Vader turned and said "So I was to believe that the Jedi were extinct!"

Rieekan stepped out of his x-wing and into the garbage chute. "Wedge, locate the bridge," he said. Just then, the door was blown down and stormtroopers ran in. Rieekan began firing at them. "Follow me!" he shouted as he ran past the advancing Imperial troops, towards the door. Once all of his men were in, he opened the door of the garbage chute, sending the stormtroopers into space.

"Sir, the bridge is directly above us," said Wedge Antillies.

"Alright then," Rieekan said, "Let's get to that elevator."

STAR WARS

Meanwhile, Obi-wan and Vader were in the middle of a fierce lightsaber duel. Obi-wan had disabled the ship's engines so Rieekan could board the it. He swung but Vader blocked and front-flipped, only to receive a cut on his left shoulder. Using his chance, Obi-wan force pushed Vader at a wall, then, threw his lightsaber at some debris hanging from the roof making it fall onto his former apprentice.

At the same time, Rieekan and his men had reached the door to the bridge to of the stardestroyer, and had began to blast it. Inside, the stormtroopers were aiming at the door, when it went up in flames and fell down. Rebels ran in and began to fire. "Let's find the self-destruct mechanism!" Rieekan shouted as he blasted a stormtrooper. Just then, forty of the best Imperial soldiers dashed in, blasted some of the Rebels, and forced Rieekan to surrender. Suddenly, Obi-wan leaped in and began to attack the stormtroopers. Rieekan and Wedge grabbed their blasters, and began to assist Obi-wan in the fight. Soon, with the help of Rieekan's troops, they had won.

"So how do we destroy this thing?" Wedge asked.

"I know how," said one of the pilots called Biggs Darklighter. "I was once an Imperial pilot."

"Okay Biggs," said Obi-wan, "you show us how to destroy it, and then we get out of here."

"Alright," said said Biggs as he stepped forward and began to dial some numbers. Once he was done, he said "We have five minutes to get out of here!"

When the Rebels arrived in the garbage chute, stormtroopers were awaiting them. Rieekan and Obi-wan held off the stormtroopers, while the other members or the squad escaped, but once they where gone Obi-wan was hit by a stun bolt. Thinking fast, Rieekan dragged Obi-wan's unconscious body into his x-wing, told his astrodroid to take him to the Tantive IV, and finally, escaped in Obi-wan's CIS strike bomber three seconds before the super stardestroyer blew up.

On the Tantive IV, Obi-wan had summoned Rieekan and Biggs. When they arrived, Obi-wan addressed Rieekan first and said, "Carlist Rieekan, you have demonstrated the bravery of a Jedi knight, and for that, I give you the rank of commander."

"Thank you, Sir," said Rieekan.

Then Obi-wan turned to Biggs and said "And you Biggs Darklighter, in destroying the Imperial star destroyer you have earned the rank of lieutenant."

950 Years before Episode 1, Part 2

by Ho Jeong, 4th grade (continued from the last paper)

"Captain, Lord Revan is back," Jack and Tom said, touching their lightsabers.

"Ask him if he has captured those Jedi knights. I heard that their uncles are dead because of a disease. Those Jedis are weak without their uncles! protection."

"Oh yeah? Take this!" Jack activated his lightsaber and tried to attack the sith captain.

"No! We!!! only get hurt! He's powerful!!!" Tom warned him.

"Huh? I should have known. I saw a Jedi starfighter and I thought it was a ship that Lord Revan had captured!" The sith captain took out his lightsaber and threw it at the alarm. Then, the alarm rang.

"Let's get out of here, now!!!" Tom said as he flipped up and went into the starfighter. Their starfighter turned upside down and got out of the Sith's base.

"Uncles, are you watching us? Did you see what we did? We trained by ourselves. Isn't that wonderful? I miss you guys," Jack thought.

"Open the gate. We are the Jedis," Tom said and looked at Jack. He was already talking with Yoda.

"Yoda, So did you find a shelter for us?" Jack asked Yoda. Yoda held his thumbs up. Yoda led Tom and Jack to a forest with lots of trees.

"Get them, bring them to me!!!" Lord Revan said and pointed at the tree where Tom and Jack were. Lord Revan ordered his men to attack Tom and Jack. The sun sunk up to the other part of the world, and the time of the night came. "Now!!!" All the Sith ran to the camp of the Jedis. The forest was glowing with red lights. The Siths attacked Jedis but half of their Sith men were defeated by Yoda.

"Do you see? Lord Sidious has picked the wrong army," Yoda said.

"You are wrong, you tiny little ogre!!!" The captain took his lightsaber but the blade did not come out nor made any sound.

"Wrong? Oh no~ Jedis always win. And sorry about that I sliced your handle into two pieces," Jack said and grinned. "Now, a final touch!!!" Then, the human- eating- humans ran down from their old house.

"Now! Run!!!" Luckily, all the Jedis survived. Then, one of the Sith shooters aimed at captain, accidentally. And the Captain fell down.

950 years later.....

Yoda found Qui-Gon in the basement. And the story continues on and on....
